

AGREEMENT

ON

THE PROMOTION AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

BETWEEN

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF PAKISTAN

AND

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ARAB REPUBLIC OF EGYPT

The Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and Government of the Arab Republic of Egypt (hereinafter referred to as the "Contracting Parties").

Desiring to create favourable conditions for greater economic cooperation between them and in particular for investments by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

Recognizing that the encouragement and reciprocal protection of such investments will be conducive to the stimulation of business initiative and will increase prosperity in both contracting parties.

Have agreed as follows:

Any change in the form in which assets are invested shall not affect their character as an investment.

2. The term "investor" means any natural or juridical person, who invests in the territory of the other Contracting Party:

- a. A "natural person" means with respect to either Contracting Party a natural person having the nationality of that Party in accordance with its laws; and
- b. A "juridical person" means with respect to either Contracting Party, any entity established in accordance with and recognized as a juridical person by its laws such as public institutions, corporations, foundations, private companies, firms, establishments and organizations.

3. The term "returns" means any amount yielded by an investment and in particular, though not exclusive, includes, profits, dividends, interests, shares, capital gains, royalties, current income, technical assistance fee and/or other fees.

4. The term "territory" means the territory of the Arab Republic of Egypt and the territory of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan respectively, as well as those maritime areas, including the seabed and subsoil adjacent to the outer limit of the territorial sea over which the state concerned exercises, in accordance with international law, sovereign rights of jurisdiction for the purpose of exploration and exploitation of the natural resources of such areas.

5. The term "Freely Convertible Currency" means the currency that is widely used to make payments for international transactions and widely exchanged in principal international exchange markets.

ARTICLE-2 PROMOTION AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

1. Each contracting Party shall encourage and create favourable conditions for investors of the other Contracting Party to invest in its territory and, shall admit such investments in accordance with its laws and regulations.

2. Investments of investors of each Contracting Party shall at all times be accorded fair and equitable treatment and shall enjoy protection and security in the territory of the other Contracting Party. Neither contracting Party shall in any way impair by unreasonable or discriminatory measures the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal of investments in its territory of investors of the other Contracting Party.

as regards to restitution, indemnification, compensation or other settlements, treatment which is not less favourable than that which the latter Contracting Party grants to its own investors or to investors of any third state. Any payments under this Article shall be prompt, adequate, effective and freely transferable.

2. Without prejudice to paragraph (1) of this Article, investors of one Contracting Party who, in any of the situations referred to in that paragraph, suffer damage or loss in the territory of the other Contracting Party resulting from:

- a. Requisitioning of their property by its forces or authorities, or destruction of their property by its forces or authorities which was not caused in combat action or was not required by the necessity of the situation, shall be accorded just and adequate compensation for the damage or loss sustained during the period of requisitioning or as a result of the destruction of the property. Resulting payments shall be freely transferable without undue delay.
- b. Destruction of their property by its forces or authorities which was not caused in combat action or was not required by the necessity of the situation, shall be accorded just and adequate compensation for the damage or loss sustained during the period of the requisitioning or as a result of the destruction of the property. Resulting payments shall be transferable freely and without undue delay.

ARTICLE-5 NATIONALIZATION AND EXPROPRIATION

1. Investments of investors of either Contracting Party shall not be nationalized, expropriated or otherwise subjected to any other similar measures having an effect equivalent to nationalization or expropriation (hereinafter referred to as "expropriation") in the territory of the other Contracting Party except for reasons of public interest under due process of law, on a non-discriminatory basis, and provided that it is accompanied by prompt, adequate and effective compensation.

2. Such compensation shall amount to the market value of the investment expropriated immediately before expropriation was taken or before impending expropriation became public knowledge, which ever is earlier, shall include interest at the applicable commercial interest rate, and shall be made without undue delay, be effectively realizable and freely transferable. Interest would be paid when the compensation is not paid beyond the date fixed for payment.

3. The investor of the Contracting Party shall have a right to a prompt review by a judicial or other independent authority of the other Contracting Party, of his or its case and of the valuation of his or its investments in accordance with the principles set out in this Article.

4. Where one Contracting Party expropriates the assets of a company which is incorporated or constituted under its laws and regulations and in which investors of the other Contracting Party own shares or other forms of participation, the provisions of this Article shall be applied.

ARTICLE-6 TRANSFERS

1. With regard to the investments made in its territory, each Contracting Party shall grant to investors of the other Contracting Party the right to freely transfer payments related to their investments and returns. Such transfers shall include in particular though not exclusive the following:

- a. Investment returns, as defined in Article 1;
- b. Compensation and other indemnities pursuant to Article 4 and 5;
- c. Proceeds accruing from the sale or liquidation, in full or partial of an investment;
- d. Funds in repayment of loans related to investments;
- e. Additional funds necessary for the maintenance or development of an existing investment;
- f. Amounts spent for the management of an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party.
- g. Earnings of nationals of the other Contracting Party who are allowed to work in connection with investments in its territory.

2. The transfers shall be made in a freely convertible currency, without undue delay at the exchange rate, which is effective for the current transactions or at the official rate of exchange in force on the date of transfers.

ARTICLE 7
SUBROGATION

If a Contracting Party or its designated agency makes a payment to its own investors under a guarantee against non-commercial risks it has accorded in respect of investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party, latter Contracting Party shall recognize;

- a. The assignment, whether under the law or pursuant to a legal transaction in that country, of any rights or claims from the investor to the former Contracting Party or its designated agency; and
- b. That the former Contracting Party or its designated agency is entitled by virtue of subrogation to exercise such claims of that investor and shall assume the obligation related to the investment.

ARTICLE 8
SETTLEMENT OF INVESTMENT DISPUTES
BETWEEN A CONTRACTING PARTY AND AN INVESTOR
OF THE OTHER CONTRACTING PARTY

1. Any dispute between a Contracting Party and investor of the Contracting Party shall be notified in writing including a detailed information by the investor to the host Contracting Party of the investment, and shall, as far as possible, be settled by the parties to the dispute amicably.
2. The local remedies under the laws and regulations of one Contracting Party in the territory of which the investment has been made shall be available for the investor of the other Contracting Party on the basis of treatment not less favourable than that accorded to investments of its own investors or investors of any third State.
3. If the dispute is not settled in this way within six months from the date of the written notification mentioned in paragraph (1), it may be submitted upon request of the investor (his choice will be final) either to:
 - a. The International Center for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) established under the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States opened for signature in Washington D.C. on 18th March, 1965, if both the Contracting Parties are Parties to this Convention.

- b. Ad-hoc Court of Arbitration established under the arbitration rules of procedures of the United Nations Commission for International Trade Law.
 - c. Regional Center for International Commercial Arbitration in Cairo.
4. The arbitration award shall be final and binding on the Parties to the dispute, Each Contracting Party shall execute the award in accordance with its laws.

ARTICLE-9 SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES BETWEEN THE CONTRACTING PARTIES

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall - if possible - be settled through negotiations between the Governments of the Contracting Parties.
2. If the dispute is not settled within six months from the start of the negotiations, it shall, upon the request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an Arbitral Tribunal in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
3. The Arbitral Tribunal shall be constituted for each individual case in the following way: Within two months of the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one member of the Tribunal. These two members shall then select a national of a third state, who, on approval of the two contracting parties, shall be appointed Chairman of the Tribunal. The Chairman shall be appointed within three months from the date of appointment of the other two members.
4. If within the periods specified in paragraph (3) of this Article, the necessary appointments have not been made, a request may be made by either Contracting Party to the President of the International Court of Justice to make such appointments. If he happens to be a national of either Contracting Party or he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the International Court of Justice next in the seniority who is not a national of either contracting party shall be invited to make the appointments.
5. The Arbitral Tribunal shall determine its own procedure and shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be final and binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own Arbitrator and its Counsel in the arbitral proceedings; the cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by both Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE-10 APPLICATION OF OTHER RULES

1. Where a matter is governed simultaneously by this Agreement and by another international agreement to which both Contracting Parties are parties, or by general principles of International Law, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent either Contracting Party or any of its investors who owns investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party from taking advantage of whichever rules are the more favourable to its/his case.

2. If the treatment to be accorded by one Contracting Party to investors of the other Contracting Party in accordance with its laws and regulations or other specific provisions or contracts is more favourable than that accorded by this Agreement, the more favourable treatment shall be accorded.

3. All disputes relating to tax matters shall be referred to the competent authorities as defined in sub-clause (1) of Sub-para (iv) of paragraph 1 of Article-3 of the Convention for Avoidance of Double Taxation between Pakistan and Egypt and shall accordingly be resolved as provided in article 25 of the said Convention.

ARTICLE-11 APPLICATION OF THE AGREEMENT

1. This Agreement shall apply to investments made after its entry into force.

2. This Agreement shall not apply to disputes existing before its entry into force.

ARTICLE-12 ENTRY INTO FORCE

This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of exchange of the written notifications by both Contracting Parties indicating that their respective legal procedures have been fulfilled.

DP-1238-80-AR-6

ARTICLE-13
DURATION AND TERMINATION

1. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall continue in force thereafter for another similar period, or periods, unless denounced in writing by either Contracting Party twelve months before its expiration.

2. With respect to investments made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement, the provisions of this agreement shall continue in force for a further period of ten years from the date of termination.

In WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned duly authorized thereto by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.
